

LOQ: Was Jonah obedient to the Lord's commands?

Answer: No. Jonah decided that he would do what he wanted rather than what God commanded him to do.

LOQ: Where did Jonah go instead of Nineveh?

Answer: Jonah went the opposite way from Nineveh by taking a boat from Joppa to Tarshish.

LOQ: What happened while Jonah was in the boat to Tarshish?

Answer: God sent a great storm that was very frightening for all the sailors.

LOQ: What did the sailors think was the cause of the storm?

Answer: They believed that it was because of one of the men that the storm was happening.

LOQ: What did they do to find out which man it was?

Answer: They drew lots and the lot fell on Jonah.

LOQ: What did Jonah tell the sailors to do to stop the storm?

Answer: Jonah said for them to throw him overboard and the storm would stop. So the sailors threw him overboard into the sea.

LOQ: What happened to the sea once Jonah was thrown in?

Answer: The storm stopped raging.

LOQ: What happened to Jonah?

Answer: Jonah sank into the ocean and a huge fish swallowed him. He prayed to God inside the fish, and the fish spit him out onto the beach.

LOQ: Was the Lord merciful to Jonah?

Answer: Yes. The Lord gave Jonah a second chance to obey Him by sending a fish to save Jonah from the sea.

LOQ: Where did Jonah go after being spit out by the big fish?

Answer: Jonah went to Nineveh and did as God had instructed him.

LOQ: Did the people of Nineveh repent?

Answer: Yes. After hearing the word of the Lord from Jonah the people repented and changed their ways.

LOQ: Was God merciful to Nineveh?

Answer: Yes. God was merciful to Nineveh by holding back His punishment because they repented.

LOQ: Was Jonah happy that God had mercy on Nineveh?

Answer: No. Jonah said he knew that God was merciful and slow to anger. He did not want Nineveh to be given mercy so he went out of the city and pouted.

LOQ: Did Jonah have a right to be angry at God for giving mercy to Nineveh?

Answer: No. God rebuked Jonah for his attitude. God is God and can have mercy on whom He chooses.
